ABANDONED VEHICLES PROCEDURES

1. To report an abandoned vehicle, call Police Dispatch at 935-3311.

The County Abandoned Vehicle Coordinator cannot make arrangements for removal of the vehicle until he has received a police report.
2. A Police Officer will locate the vehicle and attach a notice advising the owner to remove the vehicle within 24 hours.
  - If the vehicle has been removed, no report is initiated.
  - If the vehicle is still at the scene 24 hours later, an Abandoned Vehicle Report is initiated.
3. The officer sends the incident report to the Police Traffic Services Section. The report is given an official report number and is then faxed to the Department of Environmental Management.
4. If the vehicle is missing from the site when the Abandoned Vehicle Coordinator arrives, it is reported to the Traffic Services Section and the case is closed.
5. If the vehicle remains, the Abandoned Vehicle Coordinator makes arrangements with the available towing service firms to remove the vehicle within 72 hours.
  - If the vehicle is derelict, it is hauled to the waste metal recovery site
  - If not derelict, the vehicle is hauled to the impound site and the Police Department attempts to notify the registered owner. Registered owner is then charged for towing and storage of the vehicle.
6. The Abandoned Vehicle Coordinator submits quarterly reports on the status of abandoned vehicles to the Solid Waste Division Chief, the Director of Environmental Management and the Traffic Services Section of the Hawai'i Police Department.

[PART III. GENERAL PROVISIONS]

§290-41 Notice to police department. Before a vehicle is towed by any business engaged in towing vehicles, the owner of the towing business or the owner's designated representative shall notify the police department of the county by telephone to determine if the police department of the county has any investigative interest in that vehicle, describing the vehicle, the place from which it is to be towed, and such other information as the police department requires to be furnished. If the vehicle is towed and not claimed within forty-eight hours from the time the vehicle is towed, a written notification, containing the same information, shall immediately be sent to the police department by the owner of the business or the owner's designated representative.
